A LUXURY.

Of all the accessories to the Toilet, none is more enjoyable than a rich fragrant perfume What can be more pleasing to the senses than the aroma of blooming flowers, and not only pleasing, but actually healthful? Pathologically the use of perfumes is exceedingly valuable, their well-known prophylactic properties exercise a most beneficial influence. To the invalid there is nothing more agreeable or refreshing than the Citrino odors of purely floral fragrance, avoiding always the heavy sweet perfumes of France and England, which are so apt to cloy and satiate the sense of smell, rather injuring than refreshing those per sons of delicate organisation. In

MURRAY AND LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER.

We have the pure and natural fragrance of flowers in bloom, unaltered and unimpaired by the addition of any foreign substances, and entirely free from the heavy sweetness above referred to. It is, we believe, the only perfume possessing, in a marked degree, the power of

REFRSHING AND INVIGORATING

Both the body and the mind. It is adapted equally for the Handkerchief, the Toilet, and the Bath. For the first-mentioned nothing can be more exquisitely delicate, yet full-bodied; weeks after sprinkling, the handkerchief is found to exhale a perfect wealth of delicious aroma. For the Toilet it is quite unequalled, a few spoonfuls mixed with the water in the basin tending greatly to soften and beautify the skin; and we believe it to be a Perfume suitable for use

IN THE BATH,

Where its wonderful refreshing and invigorating properties give it peculiar value. In some parts of the world it is customary to empty from three to six bottles into each bath: but this quantity is not necessary—from a half to a whole bottle will be found to produce the most delightful effect, filling the bath-room with clouds of fragrance, and imparting a delicious buoyancy to the fatigued body and mind.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Always ask for the Florida Water, prepared by LANMAN and KEMP, New York, who are the sole Proprietors of the genuine article.

ANTIGUA FOTOGRAFIA.

BATEY CA.

Montevideo.

This popular Establishment continues to maintain its well-earned reputation of being the first Photographic and Fine Art Gallery in the River Plate. Its Proprietor, during a recent visit to Europe and North America, has spared no effort or expense to secure the best artistic skill, and the latest and most approved inventions applicable to the art.

The new building, in Calle 33, is modelled on the celebrated Rentlenger Studio in Paris, and combines all the modern improvements and latest inventions of the day.

PHOTO-DRAWINGS.

This new style of picture, introduced by Mr. S. L. Reignolds, of London, makes the finest and most effective style of Portrait known at the present day. Their purity of colouring and delicacy of tone is such, that some of the first English artists have been unable to determine whether they are Photographs, or simply and purely Water Color Drawings. The process is peculiarly applicable to the reproduction and enlargement of Card Photographs, enabling the artist to introduce accessories and backgrounds, change dresses, or alter figures; and, in fact, to make a harmonious portrait, which will be a 'Picture' on which the eye rests with pleasure, as well as a faithful likeness.

THE PORCELAIN PICTURE.

All styles and sizes, plain and colored, of this popular novelty, in prices ranging from five to twenty-five patacons each.

THE REMBRANDT STYLE.

This is a recent American invention, and has created a 'furore' in the States which bids fair to revolutionise Photographic Portraiture. Its peculiarity is, that it makes a Portrait stand out in bold relief from a black background, like a statue done in marble.

THE REBELLION.

Gradually the interest which the public took in this war is expiring. At first everyone believed that it was the signal for a general conflagration all over the Republic, and we expected to hear by every mail of the reaction in this or that province; but nearly a month has now elapsed since the assassination of General Urquiza, and we find that all the Provincial Governments have pigeon holed Mr. Richard L, Jordan's invitation to co-operate, and honestly and straightforwardly declared in favor of the National Government. Thus, if this Entre Riano revolt has done nothing else, it has shown us the general feeling of the country north of the Arroyo Medio—and this after all is something.

The attack on the Nogoya diligence was the first open act of hostility on the part of the Jordans. Strange coincidence, the Paraguayan war began by an attack on a steamboat; but Solano Lopez had a navy, an army, an arsenal, nay, a nation at his back; whilst this Lopez Jordan cuts such a sorry figure in the way of military or naval resources, that it is really difficult to believe that the man is in earnest. His navy does not even consist of a solitary row boat; his artillery, light field pieces, but before the war has even begun we hear that he is short of gunpowder; his soldiers have horses and lances, and a few have sabres; his commissariat can boast only of the sugar and yerba he can get from one or two country towns in his power. And yet, without money, without arms, without a navy, and without even the moral support of the other influential chiefs of Entre Rios, he purposes carrying on a war against the National Government of the Republic. Such a campaign is too preposterous to merit serious notice; the days are passed when a war can be carried on by the mere horse and lance—infantry now decide the liberties of South America.

The Entre Rianos themselves see the hopelessness of the cause; they are sharp enough in discovering which is the stronger side, and by no means slow to embrace it. When Lopez Jordan threw up the poncho, he calculated that by the first of May Caceres would be in military occupation of Corrientes; Governor Baibiene and his friends turned out; Governor Cabal and his party in Santa Fe evicted; and, in fine, the whole federal party of the Republic rallying to a man round his banner. But he has lived to see the delusion; his own party have cast him off. In the provinces he has neither sympathy or support; Corrientes is in arms and 3,000 Correntinos are now closing in on the Entre Riano frontier; Santa Fe has not 'revolutionized'—on the contrary, the very first forces thrown across the river to Paraua and Diamante were Santa Fecinos; Navarro, a man of great prestige and influence in Entre Rios, and who doubtless will be the new governor of that province, has called out the Entre Rianos to avenge the death of General Urquiza; Gen. Galarza, another highly influential chief, has joined the national cause. Jordan counted on all these men backing him in the impending struggle; but he counted without his host, and they are now in arms against him.

Again, on the Banda Oriental coast we find that the Montevidean Government has concentrated a very respectable force amply sufficient to keep Lopez Jordan and his friends from landing in that country; thus each day the lines are being drawn closer round the Jordans, and the sequel cannot be far off.

By latest advices from Entre Rios, we hear that Jordan is turning his cavalry into infantry; this is significant, inasmuch as it teaches us that the tactics of the rebel leader are more to combat desertion on the part of his own men, than to fight the enemy. Cavalry soldiers afoot make the worst soldiers of all, and Jordan will find this out to his cost very soon; the customs of the country and the general adaptability of the people to the horse, make the formation of cavalry regiments comparatively easy, but to make a good infantry soldier requires time and drill, and if Lopez Jordan has to trust his banner to his newly made infantry, the better for the National Government and the cause of law and order in the Republic.

THE JORDAN WAR.

LATEST FROM ENTRE RIOS.

The General Garibaldi and Villa del Salto arrived in port yesterday from the Uruguay. The news of which they are the bearers are not decisive, but are on the whole highly satisfactory. We take the following details from a bulletin of the Tribuna:—The chief leaders in the department of Villaguay, Liet.-Col. Taborda in Tala, Colonel Velazquez on the coast of Montiel, and Colonel Gamarra in the camp of Villaguay, have not only written to the National Commissioner General E. Mitre protesting their adhesion to the cause of the National Government, but had issued each of them very energetic proclamations calling upon the forces under their orders to arm themselves in favor of the National cause and against the assassins of General Urquiza, whom they are determined to bring to justice. In all these proclamations the example of General Galarza is invoked as one that ought to inspire all good Entre-Rianos as to the side on which they should lead.

General Emilio Mitre writes to the Minister of War giving a most satisfactory account of the state of things. It is his opinion that the forces which General Gelly y Obes is organizing in Corrientes will not be called upon to cross the Entre Rios frontier. He is confident besides that General Galarza with the division under his command will be fully sufficient to put down Lopez Jordan, against whom all Entre Rios is in arms with the exception of Concordia and Uruguay. Chasques were arriving at every moment to General Galarza from influential persons in all parts of the province, expressing their siding with the National Commissioner.

The Libertad says:—

"The assassin Lopez Jordan, who has as chief of his staff Colonel Mur, has evidently been contagiously affected by this insane old man, and himself lost his wits. He is proposing to fortify Calá, and entrench himself there with from 800 to 1,000 men. This plan of campaign can have only emanated from Colonel Mur, whose sword is as yet innocent of having been unsheathed in battle. The hand of Providence seems to be leading Lopez Jordan straight to the scaffold. That he may to-morrow be seated in the felon's dock is the earnest wish of the whole people of Entre Rios.

"The latest news from Gualeguay is to the following purport:—

"Twenty-five men, who left that town with Captain Villanueva to join the forces of Lopez Jordan, dispersed when they had gone six or seven leagues. Each of them had received from four to five dollars as gratuity before leaving; and nothing appeared to them more natural than to seize the earliest opportunity of decamping back to town to have a blow out at the 'pulperia.' If all the volunteers of Lopez Jordan follow this example, the war will be soon at an end, and peace and tranquillity restored, without the necessity of firing a single shot."

The army of the Uruguay was momentarily expected to move to effect a conjunction with General Conesa's army.

Colonel Almada, having left Lopez Jordan, was marching to Gualeguaychu with all his men to join Gen. Mitre. A National force had gone out to receive him.

Passengers by the Villa del Salto relate that Concordia was a prey to every sort of excess. The celebrated Querencio has published an edict threatening with capital punishment any Argentine who should fail to present himself within the space of four days.

Colonel Manuel Navarro, who has irrevocably pronounced in favor of the National Government, has tendered his services to General Galarza. The latter reports that in the course of a week he would have under his orders three thousand men ready to operate against the rebels.

The Deparment of Gualeguay, where Colonel Tejera exercises great influence, and has refused to obey the National Government, has not given a single man to Lopez Jordan, and according to reliable news will not give any. The Entre-Rianos of this Department will neither fight nor side with either party.

Nothing could be better than the spirit of the army of the Uruguay. The townspeople of Gualeguay also fraternise with the soldiers, and the officers are treated with the greatest attention by the higher classes of society them. General E. Mitre has won the respect and good opinion of everybody.

Lopez Jordan is at Cala. Some people attribute to him the plan of entrenching himself there, without attempting any attack. From 2,500 to 3,000 men is all the force calculated to be at his disposal throughout the province.

Colonel Cordero, Captain of the Port of Concordia, is among the passengers by the Villa del Salto. He reports that town as almost abandoned—everybody was crossing over to Salto to escape the arbitrary measures of Querencio.

The San Martin regiment of cavalry had gone to encamp at a league and a half from the town of Gualeguaychu to keep in check any rebel parties that might attempt to come near the town.

Several estancias belonging to 'unitarios' had been sacked by Lopez Jordan's partisans.

An anonymous flying sheet had appeared in Gualeguaychu, which contains a string of abuse against the Chamber of Justice for the protest published by it here against Lopez Jordan.

GLORIOUS NEWS FROM ENTRE RIOS.

THE WAR ALL OVER.

No man can tell what the morrow may bring. In this country we live in a scene of continual shifting. Change seems to be stamped upon everything in the River Plate. Seeing is not believing, because what we see we must, under no circumstance, believe. We all know of the Jordan War; we know that the whole disturbance was caused by Lopez Jordan. Yet will it be credited, we learn upon the very highest authority that there is no such person as Lopez Jordan, and that the man who has raised the revolt is one Lopez Delgado, or more properly, Lopez Delaine.

The facts respecting the history of this man, who has pushed himself to the surface in such an extraordinary manner, have been given to us by one of the judges of Entre Rios, who knows the whole family.

Lopez Delgado (or as he has been erroneously called Lopez Jordan) was born in Paysandú in the year 1822 where his parents had temporarily fled from Buenos Ayres, his father was a general who usually resided at Concepcion del Uruguay and who married a Miss Delgado or Delaine the daughter of a respectable estanciero of Entre Rios. General Lopez found that in Concepcion there were so many persons named Lopez his betters, went astray and therefore took the name of his mother Jordan, who was the daughter of an old English trader named Jordan who carried on trade at Paysandú and Concepcion in the early part of this century—Old General Lopez notwithstanding that he assumed his mothers name was always known in Entre Rios as General Lopez and young Lopez the subject of this notice who if he took any name at all should have taken his mother's, which was Delgado or Delaine young Lopez Delaine, was sent to school at Buenos Ayres and General Urquiza who had married his aunt Miss Lopez, paid for his schooling and took the greatest interest in the boy. General Urquiza had by his marriage with Miss Lopez only one child a daughter, the present Mrs, Victorica.

Lopez Delgado returned to Entre Rios and settled in Parana, where he married a very lovely girl, a Miss Puig, by whom he has five children; subsequently he settled on an estancia which General Urquiza gave him, which is near Parana. It is a fine place, some six leagues of good land and with about 7,000 head of horned cattle; he has also another estancia near Uruguay, which he occasionally visits. General Urquiza had ever a great regard for Lopez Delaine, and had a fine house built in Concepcion de Uruguay, which he presented to him. Lopez subsequently exchanged it for one in Parana, belonging to Señor Victorica, which he now owns; it is worth about 10,000 patacons.

Thus it will be seen that there is really no such person as Lopez Jordan, and the party in question is Lopez Delgado, or Delaine. The name Delaine may possibly be French, and in Entre Rios it is said to be so, but in these provinces people draw no distinction between foreigners, and it would seem to us that the real name is Delany. Therefore, the arch rebel in Entre Rios is, after all, none other than Mr. Richard L. Delany.

All decrees, flats judgments, &c., against Lopez Jordan amount to nothing. The name is fictitious, according to the testimony of one of the judges of the Supreme Court of Entre Rios, who is at present in this city; ergo there is no rebellion at all, Richard Delany has not been outlawed: his best move, therefore, is to give up Entre Rios and come to live in this city or in Montevideo. Mr. Delany, we believe, may be expected down for the May festival.

THE FULTON MENDEZ INVENTION.

Yesterday was both a victory and a defeat for the corkscrew steamer—a victory shown by the hundreds who thronged our office from daybreak to nightfall—a defeat evidenced by the majority deciding that the invention will prove a failure; but when Fulton first started his steamer he had to contend with the same hostility. Mr. Fulton Mendez cannot at least complain of indifference, for the rush yesterday exceeded that of the day before, and some parties took such a lively interest in the invention as to propose that we put the model into a tub of water: this of course we opposed. As servants of the public, and friends to every description of scientific discovery, we have placed the model on view at our office, but to be held responsible for the working of it is asking too much; in fact we are free to confess that we know nothing whatever about steamers. The invention, to us and many others, seems deserving the highest attention. We make these observations in consequence of the continued disputes as to the merits of the scheme which took place in our patio yesterday. Some captains and engineers expect that we should know as much about the invention as Fulton Mendez himself. This is a grave error.

Respecting the Hazell invention about which there was such a row yesterday, we can as yet say nothing. Scientific men should keep their temper, and we could not under any circumstance permit a repetition of the scenes which occurred in the patio yesterday. We have a very arduous duty to fulfil in getting out the paper for the morning, with our brother our up in Cordoba. Subjects have to be treated of, which require the calmest consideration; interruption we are accustomed to, but when arguments become so noisy as to require the interference of the whole editorial staff of our office to save our museum from a general wreck, we feel indeed that the time has come to cry 'hold enough.'

The following were some of the opinions offered yesterday:—

Mr. Pollock, Government Engineer. Neat play toy, endless screw no new idea; the shape is an improvement in the wrong way, for the two currents at the keel prevent proper steering.

Von Niller. In that case we should have to throw the main deck overboard, stop off the steam and let her vere round with the wind.

Dr. Bagley. What is the use of wasting so much time and money to avoid sea sickness, when a little Hesperadina will cure you.

Mr, Raffe. If the new screw is no better than the novel cigar shape, it will certainly end in a bottle of smoke.

Mr. Dale. Was quite confounded, admired much, but said little.

Dr. Ayer. The endless screw is no novelty in England, whatever it may be in Corrientes.

Scientific Friend. Not half so good as Ruthven's Pump, which acted on the double principle of suction and forcing.

Sr. Bratch. The most objectionable point appears to be the impossibility of getting at the screw if it required repairs.

Padre Blanes. This is no new idea; I saw the same thing in Corrientes as far back as 1852.

The scientific inventor (indignantly). Impossible; such a principle has never before been seen or heard of, nor hath it entered into the mind of man to conceive.

Mr. Urban Smith. Reserves his judgment until he sees it working.

Mr. Mackern. If the two screws don't work together she will remain stationary.

Mr. L. Jones. It is a 'perfect cure.'

Mr. Rafferty. Far better for his Lordship to spend his time and money inventing some machine to save us from being drowned by municipal neglect.

Captain Tibbets, barque Archer. Never do for sailing vessels.

Mr. Kreutsch. Has no opinion.

Mr. Stock. They have nothing like this in the Fatherland.

Mr. Daniels. God help us if we don't get out of the country until that article takes us home in six days.

Mr. Dauney. The same ridiculous idea was tried in 1826; a hopeless failure.

Tall Engineer to group of fellow-professionals. It is all nonsense, boys, to think that a native of South America, could succeed in what men bred, born, and reared in a scientific atmosphere failed to do.

Mr Goodhall. Would be as bad as the Aduana Chica for importers.

Scrimgeuor. Rather swim the whole way.

Mr. Edward Madero. Why not turn on the 'aguas corrientes?'

Mr. Benn. Would never suit the mail however well adapted.

Mr. Downs. We shall be better able to judge when we see her afloat.

Mr. Ramsey. Admired the brass plate above any other part of the model, but objected to the Spanish inscription, when seeking an English patent.

Captain Couche, of H.B.M. gunboat Racoon, was kind enough to bring down his chief engineer, one of the most experienced that ever came to these countries, to inspect the model Mr. —— did not pronounce a very favorable opinion of a plan which had been long ago tried in England without success. True, no ship has ever been made with double hull, but many years ago an endless screw was placed between two vessels tightly lashed together, thus forming, without much expense or trouble, a body almost the same as the present model.

It being now 6 o'clock, we had to move an adjournment of the meeting till half-past five next morning.

MONTEVIDEO.

BARON MAUA'S LETTER.

Tuesday.

Baron Maua has addressed the following important letter to the Finance Minister, on the present aspect of the banking question:—

Most excellent sir,

As the question of the bank notes in charge of the State is just now under discussion, I deem the moment opportune for calling the attention of Government to that phase of it in which the Bank of Maua & Co. is interested.

In my report to the Fiscal Banking Commission on August 2nd, 1869, in which was set forth an estimate of the securities which Maua & Co. handed over to it against the notes of the said Bank then in circulation, I first exposed the renewed injustice of which the Bank was victim, through the Government estimating the value of the Public Funds in a way that violated the very law which it was question of observing; and placed the matter in the hands of the Government of my country. I then made the following observations:

"I cannot conclude without suggesting a course to the Fiscal Commission, which it will be pleased to bring under the notice of the Government. Article 3. of the law in question gives me a full acquittance on the securities being handed over to the nation, which undertook to pay the emission, for which said securities were an ample guarantee.

By this law which all are bound to observe, Maua & Co. were legally exonerated from any obligation of payment.

The principles of inflexible rectitude which, thank God, form the base of my character, and the moral standing which more than forty years of honorable dealing has secured for me in these countries where my name is known, suggests some doubts as to this acquittance, and I cannot conceal from myself that 'morally' I continue responsible; though I claim the right to observe that conditions have been established which guarantee the payment of the notes of Mauá & Co., in addition to the guarantee imposed by the law.

I must inform the Commission that so strong are the scruples I entertain that I will not hesitate to pledge my word that, if the Government cannot convert the notes within the stipulated time or arrange with other banks some means of doing so, as permitted by the law of July 7th, Art. 13. I will consent to take back the 2nd Series of the Funded Debt and the European-Montevidean loan at the prices at which they were valued; always providing that the guarantees for interest and amortization remain in force. I will also bind myself to convert the notes within the shortest time possible, it being with me a question of honour, duty and morality to do so; but it is impossible to determine beforehand at what date the conversion will be practicable without compromising the bank which can only release the securities it holds according as the circumstances of the country permit." These words comprise a 'moral' obligation which becomes positive should the circumstances therein anticipated arise.

Accustomed as I have been to carry out to the letter the obligations I undertake, and seeing that my anticipations have been realized, and that the Government has not been able to convert the notes within the term to which it bound itself, and that having received, nevertheless, securities belonging to Maua & Co. on the conditions and with the expressed design of paying a debt of the Bank, it has not done so. I consider that the time has arrived for fulfilling the promise which I made, and which extended to the holders of the notes.

I am ready to sign a contract to carry out this promise, on the Government restoring the securities handed to it by the Bank, in which said establishment will bind itself to pay the debt.

As it is now patent that the Government cannot fulfil its obligations, there is no other alternative that can be considered just and honest.

The date for such payment might be matter of arrangement, but I do not wish to fix it, to avoid pressing the customers of the Bank, which should be done if the time named were near; any alteration in the present emission of the country can be avoided.

Allow me to observe that this offer in no way invalidates or weakens the reclamation which I made to the Emperor of Brazil for the loss and injuries I suffered through the Superior Government closing the doors of Maua & Co., always excepting the case of an agreement convenient to both sides being come to.

God preserve Y.E. many years,

BARON DE MAUA.

To H.E. Sr. Don Duncan Stewart,
Minister of Finance.

Montevideo, April 28, 1870.

People here have been looking out for some decisive news of the rebel movements, but as yet we have none. In Paysandu, Salto and Tacuarembo things are perfectly quiet, all the revolutionary bands having suddenly vanished, no one knows where. The river is so well watched that no reinforcements have been able to join the revolutionists from the other side. Some rumors were afloat respecting desertions from the First Battalion of National Guards that went to Florida last week; but they turned out to be groundless. Aparicio was last seen in the vicinity of Cordobes. It is generally believed here that President Batlle is about to take the field; his headquarters will be at Durazno.

Minister Bustamante returned here on Sunday from Florida.

Yellow-Fever is said to have broken out at Santa Catalina, but up to the present the cases have been very few.

Some of our morning papers mentioned lately the fact of the return of that firebrand Fortunato Flores, who is said to have come round by Santa Rosa and is again on Oriental soil This stormy petrel is only in his glory when revolutionary gales are blowing; 'quien sabe' where we may next hear of him.

Both Chambers have passed the project of the Junta de Credito Publico on the banking question; it now only requires the sanction of the Executive to become law.

Another of those demoralizing exhibitions—bull-fights—is to come off next Sunday; as a set off to the announcement it will, it is believed, be the very last.

There was a row of a serious character at the Alcazar here on Sunday night. A well known member of the 'demi-monde' appeared in a front box so 'decolleté' and otherwise indecently clad that even the not over-sensitive 'habitués' thought that public decency demanded a demonstration. Terrific hisses and shouts continued the whole evening, but Anonyma sat it out with wonderful coolness. Some glasses and tables were smashed, but no other damage.

Pasi got a great reception at Solis in Traviata on Sunday; she will be a great favorite here.

Business is slightly more active; the settling of the banking question caused a smart decline in gold to-day.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday there was an ovation at the mole-head to welcome the arrival of Sr. Paranhos. The Argentine Government, with much courtesy, sent the Port Captain's boat off to the steamer Rosario to bring Sr. Paranhos ashore. We noted the following distinguished gentlemen, who pushed off in the 'falua' to meet Sr. Paranhos:—H.E. Sr. Borges, Brazilian Minister, and Secretary Sr. Peixoto; Baron Maua, Col. Deschamps, Mr. Alkein, Mr. Amorim, and others. The steamer Rosario just dropped anchor as the Port Captain's boat came alongside, and in a few minutes the whole party put off for the shore. On the mole head there was a large crowd awaiting Sr. Paranhos. Dr. Roque Perez drove down in his private carriage, drawn by a splendid pair of English horses, from the well-known establishment of Dn. Leonardo Pereira. Col. Bustillos Captain of the Port; Mr. Edward Madero, Mr. DeMotte, Judge Peralta, of Entre Rios, and a whole host of others welcomed Mr. Paranhos as he stepped on shore. Mr. Paranhos was the first on the steps, followed by Gen. Vedia and his aide-de-camp; then came Sr. Lisboa, Mr. Paranhos' secretary, who is now Brazilian Consul-General to the Argentine Republic. The whole party looked well, considering that they came from such a wretched country as Paraguay. Mr. Paranhos looks as well as the day he left. Sr. Lisboa is rather thin and appears to have been living at the Legation on bitter oranges and mandioca. Gen. Vedia is slightly tanned, but our friend Dr. Alvez, who last year was a thin, spare man, is now as fat as ex-Lord Mayor Roque Perez. Carriages were in waiting to take the whole party off. Mr. Paranhos with Sr. Borges, Baron Maua and General Vedia drove off in the Minister's carriage to the Maua Bank, where Sr. Paranhos, we understand, puts up, and the rest of the party followed in the other coaches.

The British Hospital Bazaar opened on Tuesday night under the most favorable auspices, not excepting those of the Clerk of the Weather, whose good graces are so essential to the success of every public gathering in this country. The front of the Coliseum was adorned with a neat device in gas lights, comprising the words "Bazaar de Caridad," Inside, the scene was one of enchantment. The attendance was fair: the 'salle' most tastefully arranged with flags and flowers; the stalls were covered with every kind of elegant and costly nick nack, jewellery, ornaments of all sizes and shapes, flowers, &c., while behind them were collected bevies of as fair women as any city or country could produce, all intent on their charitable work. The truth must needs be told, that the number of visitors was not equal to that expected; but this was accounted for in various ways, and a stronger muster was expected for last, and is anticipated for this, the closing night. President Sarmiento was not present, but it is hoped that H.E. will pay the Bazaar a visit before it closes. Indeed, the number of Porteños present was limited in the extreme. All the principal English families were present, but the unmarried 'male community was conspicuous by its absence. High prices were obtained for many of the articles offered for sale but the most successful means employed for the transfer of money from the well filled pockets to the tills of the patronesses were the various raffles, The flower and refreshment departments were the theme of universal praise. We understand that about $60,000 m|c. were the proceeds of the night. Towards midnight the attendance had dwindled away to such small proportions that the fair 'tiendéras,' worn out with the day's exertions, adjourned till the following evening.

We sincerely thank our friend and colleague Orion for his kind birthday congratulations. If Hector Varela be not an Irishman, of which fact we have always entertained a doubt, we can only say, 'more's the pity.'

The following were the amounts of National Bonds sold during:—

January,	$1,297,500	average rate	59¾
February	1,227,700	" "	62¾
March	1,165,100	" "	66⅜
April	2,143,500	" "	65¾

It will be seen that the tendency is towards increased dealing in the Public Funds. Every day more money is finding its way into these securities and ere long, from the facility of transfer and greater faith in the progress of the country, they will become with the moneyed classes quite as favourite an investment as houses or land,

The news from Entre Rios yesterday morning was of the most reassuring and satisfactory character. We publish it in 'extenso' in another column. but its pith is contained in the official despatch of General Emilio Mitre to the War Office, H. E. says that General Galarza's forces alone are sufficient to bring the campaign to a triumphant issue,and that it is probable that in a month more the famous Jordan War will be at an end. The rebel Governor has, it is said. determined to shut himself up in Cala and there await the National troops, staking all his fortunes on a single throw at that place. No doubt can be entertained of the issue; indeed it looks like as if all were already over, but the shouting, proclaiming the victory of the Federal arms.

The news from Montevideo yesterday was of the most scanty description. Our correspondent says that dulness reigns supreme there. The revolution, like Lopez Jordan, is on its last legs, or nearly so.

It never rains but it pours. The Fulton-Mendez invention has startled the scientific world from its propriety, turned the heads of business men who dream of sending produce to Europe in a week, caused an invasion of our premises, such as newspaper office never before witnessed; in fact, set everything and everybody "a tort et a travers." But there is "another Richmond in the field"—Mr. Hazell, of the firm of Warden and Hazell, has just invented a boat which he says will "walk away" from the Mendez corkscrew steamer. Mr. Hazell's model is very extraordinary, being the longitudinal section of an ordinary boat; in fact, a boat cut in two from stem to stern. Experiments have already been tried with this novel structure, which under sail obtained a speed of 10 knots an hour. We should be happy to exhibit a model of Mr. Hazell's boat if he would favour us with one.

Robberies from the hotels of the city are becoming every day more frequent. The other night an English gentleman stopping at one of our best hotels was robbed of a quantity of valuables during a short absence of a few hours. These cases arise very often from the carelessness of those occupying the rooms, through leaving their doors open, and not from any fault of the proprietors.

A great hubbub has been raised about the new prima donna Madame Ronzi. Some of our colleagues condemn her in unqualified terms. We think this very unfair,both to the lady herself and the managers of the Opera House; neither do we think the strictures that have appeared fully justified from any point of view. We think Madame Ronzi should have another, or if needs be, several other trials, when our musical critics can have ample opportunity of passing a final judgment by which she must abide. She was unfortunate in choosing the character of Lady Macbeth for her 'debut,' and the cowardly attempt to intimidate her on her first appearance, may well have prevented the display of abilities as yet unknown to us.

Our office was again crowded yesterday by visitors who come to see the Mendez model. Mr. Pollock, the well known engineer, says the great objection to the invention is that it will be found impossible to steer a vessel built on such a plan. Mr. Mendez signed yesterday at our office before Captain McDonnell, British Chargé d'Affaires; Mr. Sartoris, First Secretary of Legation, and Mr. Anthony Bell, the documents necessary for obtaining a patent for his invention in England.

In view of the probably prompt termination of the Entre Riano question, and the chance that there would not be a sufficiency of water for her to pass up the falls on her way to Salto, B. O., H. M. S. Beacon has been ordered to Ensenada instead of the former port as originally intended.

Next Saturday the lovely and accomplished daughter of one of our wealthiest capitalists will be led to the hymeneal altar by the eldest son of a distinguished member of the bar. The happy event will be celebrated by a ball on a gorgeous scale, for which 400 invitations have already been issued.

We feel the greatest pleasure in saluting our friend Captain Page on his return to the Plate. He is well known as the author of one of the best works on these countries that has ever been published.

Dr. Alston, of No. 141 Calle Parque, performed an operation last week that, we are told, has never before been attempted by any surgeon in South America, viz, the extraction of an ovarian tumour. The operation was performed by Dr. Alston in a very short time, and with but little suffering to the patient, who is doing well. We congratulate our countryman on the sensible addition this successful effort must prove to the already great reputation he enjoys.

The Magellan is expected in Montevideo from Liverpool on the 8th. She will sail thence for Valparaiso on the following day.

The immigration returns fell off sensibly during the past month; the number of new arrivals during the month of April only reached a total of 1,496 souls.

The Hole in the Mole is again yawning wide for the destruction of passengers, and there are hundreds of smaller ones along its whole length It is most devoutly to be wished that the next storm will sweep the whole concern away, and oblige a new one to be erected; there is no other way of getting a proper landing stage. The Port Captain says he will have the mole mended, but why does he not do it at once?

Sr. Paranhos, accompanied by Sr. Borges, resident Brazilian Minister, and Dr. Roque Perez, paid an official visit yesterday to the President of the Republic, and had a long private conference with H.E.

Mr. Craufurd was unavoidably prevented yesterday from giving us a detailed description of the proceedings at the Bazaar on Tuesday evening. Our fair readers may look confidently for its appearance in to-morrow's issue.

The Palermo Minstrels request us to state that, by express desire, they will give another concert next Saturday evening, 7th inst., for a charitable object, with an entire change of programme; full particulars will be given to-morrow. Mr. Phillips has kindly promised to assist. This will be his last appearance here, as he departs for England on Monday next by the Copernicus.

We have been requested to state that the raffle for 'King Arthur' will conclude this evening at 11 o'clock precisely. Any tickets not presented before that hour will be forfeited.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heine give another of their popular concerts in company with the Spanish Zarzuela at the Victoria Theatre, on Saturday evening next the 7th inst. The reason why such a long interval has ensued between the entertainments of these favorite favorite performers is on account of the Bazaar in aid of the British Hospital, and their desire to do nothing that would keep even one person from visiting it. On the last appearance of Mr. and Mrs. Heine at the Victoria the theatre was crowded to its utmost capacity, and we are sure that the same thing will re-occur on Saturday next. We heartily recommend these entertainments as being both pleasing and diversified.

The Royal Mail steamship City of Buenos Aires with mails from England of the 3rd ult. arrived in Montevideo early yesterday morning. We understand she has brought a heavy mail, which having been forwarded by the Rio Uruguay will be delivered in town early to-day. She also brings between forty and fifty passengers and some specie.

H. R. HELPER.

The friends of Mr. H. R. Helper in the Plate,may possibly read with interest the following letter which we cut from an American colleague.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Journal publishes the following letter from the author of 'The Impending Crisis'

Sir: I have seen it stated in the newspapers that certain members of the Legislature, from facetious impulses, or from motives exclusively their own, have voted for me for Clerk of the House of Representatives. That any such preposterous action was ever contemplated or intended, I had not the slightest intimation until I saw it published. It would be a matter of regret with me to suppose that any man, possessed of a good heart and a well balanced mind, would do me the injustice to believe that I would or could, under any conceivable circumstances, accept any office, however high or however humble, that could possibly be offered me by the radical party, or by any other unnatural pro-negro party.

ON 'CHANGE.

May 4, 1870.

Ounces,	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	25
Nat. Bonds	65½

The Bond market opened very flat, but the King entered, bought every Bond offered, and prices at once rose. The general feeling is that the affair in Entre Rios will be settled in a few days, and that the Bonds will run up to their previous figure. The sales to-day were as follows:—

For cash 17,600, opening at 64½, and closing at 65½.

For Friday 10,000 at 65.

" Saturday 40,000 at 65½ to 65½.

" May 31, 40,000 at 66¼.

The news from Entre Rios to-day was generally regarded as good; the rebel party have fallen back on Cala, where it is said that they intend to intrench themselves. General Mitre,s letter was highly satisfactory as it showed that the National Government would not have to call out the Provincial militia,

The news from Europe per City of Buenos Ayres is very favourable. Wool continues firm in Antwerp and Havre, and with an upward tendency. Manufacturers were waiting for the auction of the 5th and 6th. The news of Lopez' death had not reached Europe up to the sailing of the steamer, 2nd April. Dates from New York to March 31st. Dry hides at 22¾, Hair 27. Gold 111¼, Exchange 108¾. Cotton 22¼, Dates from Antwerp to 1st. Wools firm, Salted hides firm, twocargoes sold at 6¼. Tallow down. Havre. Wools and hides firm, but tallow flat,

The steamer Arequipa met with an accident to her machinery, and has been obliged to put back to Rio.

From Rio we have sovereigns at 19,510. No quotations of exchange.

There were some important transactions in the foreign debt; one well known Argentine capitalist bought 13,900$f. at 60. This shows a rise of nearly 4 per cent on the value. There are several other buyers of this debt, but as it is scarce some parties are investing in National Bonds.

Nothing done in exchange to-day; the fall in sovereigns in Rio has checked the disposition to ship specie from this market to Rio. We have no quotation of exchange in Rio, but it was said on 'Change that exchange there must be 25d.

The important lawsuit of the River Plate Bank versus Dowdall and Lopez, comes up for final hearing on the 6th inst.

Money is still stringent, yet a large business was done in discounts to-day at 9, 10 and 12 per cent. Some 80,000 patacons advanced on bonds to-day at 9 per cent. per annum, and more offering at to. The Provincial Bank only discounted half the bills offered.

The sale of the third share of the "Tribuna," belonging to Sr. Casafousth, announced the other day, fell through, and the business has now been done by Don Hector and Mariano, who for sixty thousand patacons have purchased the share, the partnership contract having expired four days ago.

An English gentleman, we understand, has made an offer of sixty thousand patacons for the Cuyo tramway: the original cost is said to be forty thousand patacons. Nothing further known up to the closing hour of the Bolsa.

We extract from Mr. Lennuyeux's interesting circular for last month the following data—

NO MAN OF REFINEMENT uses inferior perfumery, for the simple reason that no woman of refinement would tolerate him if he did. In this country the toilet outfit of a gentleman is considered incomplete without a bottle of Murray & Lanman's Florida Water. In fact it is the standard perfume here, and although the French extracts and German toilet waters are imported, it is only to a very limited extent as compared with this popular article. It is a staple luxury throughout South and Central America, Mexico and Cuba, and seems to be especially adapted to the wants and tastes of the inhabitants of this country. As there are counterfeits, always ask for the Florida Water prepared by Lanman & Kemp, New York. 7

The Warrants for Payment of Interest, from the 25th of March to the 29th of September, 1869, to Proprietors in this Republic of the Central Argentine Railway, and which arrived by the last British Mail Steamer, but were detained on board by the quarantine laws, having been received, parties may apply for Interest on their Shares, at the Office of the Company, 106 Bolivar, on any business day after the 1st of May next, from Ten a.m to Three p.m.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current we now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maua & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays an holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public nowspapers.

LA PROBIDAD

COMPAÑIA GENERAL ARGENTINA DE SEGUROS
(A PRIMA FIJA)
EN
BUENOS AIRES

Capital social: 1000,000$ fts. en 1,000 acciones de 1,000$ fts. cada una

PROSPECTO

De cuantas sociedades y empresas mercantiles ha formado la actividad humana, ninguna ha sido mas útil, ni tan exenta de peligros como las Compañías de Seguros, unicas protejidas universalmente por los capitalistas, con plena confianza, de su éxito no podrá ser desgraciada, aunque la necesidad de su instituto no sea generalmente reconocida.

Siendo instituciones de prevision, ellas prestan el apoyo mas eficaz a la propiedad, a la industria, al comercio y al crédito. Son la garantia del trabajo y de la economia de todas las clases de la sociedad, porque reparan todos los siniestros que menoscaban la fortuna, y mediante un cierto sacrificio pecuniario, fundan la seguridad de un porvenir que no depende de nosotros. Considerando bajo este punto de vista resulta, pues, que los Seguros tienen un fin eminentemente moral y util. Basta echar una ojeada sobre la situacion de las Compañias de Seguros para convencerse de su prosperidad, de su desenvolvimiento y de la confianza de que gozan con justo titulo.

En Buenos Aires puédese citar, de ejemplo, la Compañia de Seguros Maritimos, que ha distribuido, entre sus accionistas, durante el curso de diez años, la suma de 1 6,224$, sobre 25,000$, capital desembolsado, lo cual da el interes anual de 35, 40 o/o.—Una Compañia de Seguros Maritimos en Rio Grande produjo, a sus socios, el año proximo pasado, un 90 o/o de beneficios.

Muchos mas hechos comprueban la utilidad que en el nuevo y viejo Continente reportan los capitales que toman participacion en las sociedades de Seguros, y las memorias anuales de estas participan beneficios tan considerables que, en verdad, se haria sospechosa si no se fundase en guarismos de exactitud incontestable.

En virtud de estas razones, los iniciadores de la Compañia "La Provindad" teniendo en cuenta el desenvolvimiento colosal de la riqueza en el Rio de la Plata, y los inmensos beneficios que el interes individual puede reportar por su establecimiento, asi que las utilidades, no menor a del capital asegurador, desean propagar, en bien de todos, la idea del Seguro y dar al efecto a su Compañia, para que sea digna de su proposito, la estension suficiente a abarca en sus operaciones la seccion siguiente:

2° Seguros contra incendios.
3° Seguros contra accidentes de ferro-carril. y mas tarde, "
4° Seguros sobre la vida.
[Todas a prima fija].

La esplotacion de estas diversas clases de Seguros, debe comprenderse en las operaciones de la Compañia, como medio poderoso de alcanzar en ellas los resultados mas prontos y lucrativos.

Y por lo tanto, los iniciadores invitan a los Sres. Capitalista del Rio de la Plata a la suscricion de acciones, en la confianza de que comprenderán la grande importancia de su pensamiento y la influencia que ha de ejercer en estos paises, ofreciendo, demás, a los valores que constituyán la empresa, un resultado tan halagüeño como seguro y pronto.

Los accionistas harán un desembolso efectivo de 5 o/o del valor escrito de cada accion, o sean 50 pesos fuertes, quedando de capital de reserva el otro 95 o/o.

Las acciones serán nominales.

Calle de Reconquista No. 87 (altos)

LANDS OF THE CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY COMPANY.

The Company are prepared to offer on advantageous terms to settlers, either as tenants or purchasers, parcels of their Lands lying alongside of their Line of Railway, connecting the City and Port of Rosario with the Capital of the rich Province of Cordoba.

1st. Small Farms of 20 to 40 "cuadras cuadradas," at their German and Swiss Colony of "Bern-tadt," five leagues from the town of Rosario, and where about 70 families are now collected, and a small town laid out.

2d. Farms and Sheep Lands at the river Carcarañia, ten leagues from Rosario.

3d. The rich Lands of "Cañada de Gomez," where there is already an English and German population, in lots of one hundred "cuadras cuadradas," or four hundred and twenty acres, more or less. At this place an important town will eventually spring up, the plan of which is laid out.

4th. Lots in similar lots of one hundred cuadras, at the English settlement at "Los Leones," at the Fifth Station from Rosario.

The conditions on which these Lands will be disposed of, or leased, are, taking into consideration their very favorable position, alongside of a railway, the quality of the soil, and salubrity of climate, unprecedentedly advantageous to the immigrant, as well as to families already domiciled in other parts of the River Plate and Brazil.

Propositions for other portions of the Company's Lands, besides those above-mentioned, will also be received.
